

FACT SHEET

Spirit of the Hills is dedicated to promoting all creative art forms and traditions in Northumberland County, including the performing and visual arts, media, design and the literary arts.

Our goal is to build and sustain the arts as a vibrant and integral part of our community.

We encourage involvement through our numerous cultural events and committee opportunities.

Our membership boasts many celebrated artists, photographers, actors, writers, musicians, dancers, performing artists and artisans.

We serve our members by:

- Promoting public awareness of all art forms
- Encouraging the display and performance of our members' work
- Organizing social events, workshops, seminars, literary and performance events.
- Finding venues for members' work in public place including existing and non-traditional public spaces.
- Ensuring that the creative process is considered an important and vital part of the social and economic fabric of our community.
- Arranging media access, press and publicity to promote our members' work.
- Maintaining a database of all artists and friends of the arts a community resource.
- Providing a networking forum for members to communicate with each other, as well as to develop links to other arts organizations.

Our Structure

Founded in August 2000, Spirit of the Hills is essentially sustained by volunteers, membership and art show fees and revenues from performances sponsored by the organization. Several committees exist to carry out the mandate of this successful arts group.

For more information, please visit our web site www.spiritofthehills.org or send us an email: president@spiritofthehills.org or media@spiritofthehills.org.
